Message Description

Friday Evening: Conformity To The Biblical Perspective Of Revival

Emphasizing the repeated Biblical imagery of rain and floods picturing revival, this message from Matthew 7:24-27 looks reflectively at five classical appearances of the word “revive” or “revival” in the Old Testament. The five passages confront the believer with five commitments necessary to experience real revival.

Saturday Morning Joint Workshop: Accountability Through Family Worship

This session establishes the absolute dependency of God moving in revival upon family worship. Both Scriptural and historical accounts of family worship’s impact upon revival will challenge the participants.

Saturday Morning Men’s Workshop: Husbands, Pray With Your Wife

Men are instructed from 1 Peter 3:7-12 with specific guidelines in their responsibility to pray with their wives. The text will also reveal the grave consequences that come when a man fails in this awesome responsibility.

Saturday Morning Women’s Workshop: Wives, Pray For Your Husband

This session taught by Judy Finley will explore from the early chapters of Genesis God’s plan for a woman to use her innate drive to control her husband as a catalyst for intercession for him. Explanation will be given as to how the misuse of this drive serves as a major hindrance to revival.

Senior Adult Sunday School Hour: Responsibility Of The Elderly In Revival

From the Old Testament passage of Joel 2:28-29 this message stresses the important and indispensable role the elderly have in revival.

Sunday Morning Worship Service: Availability Of The Believer In Revival

In this message an exegetical look at Ezekiel 22 provides the proper interpretation of the often quoted verses 30 and 31 where God states that He found no one to stand in the gap for the land of Israel. This study shows that Israel’s condition when God searched for someone to stand in the gap has striking parallels to the nation of America. The believer is challenged with his own responsibility to stand in the gap for revival in America.

Sunday Evening Youth Gathering: Opportunity For Youth In Revival

This study of Joel 2:28 reveals four requirements that only the youth can provide to facilitate a church's preparation for revival.

Sunday Evening Service: Credibility In Evangelism During Revival

This message from Psalm 51:10-13 shows that David employed evangelism to maintain the revival that came into his life following his personal cleansing from his sin with Bathsheba. The six principles that David applied to that evangelism should also be the principles that control the quality of a revived church's evangelistic outreach.
